THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
JANUARY 24, 2016
LIVING AS THE BODY OF CHRIST

Some of Saint Paul's best known and most beloved imagery is contained in the passages from First Corinthians that we have heard last week and this week: the many gifts granted by the one same Spirit and the many members making up the one Body of Christ. Few passages from sacred scripture more accurately sum up how Christian vocations work together.

Unlike some of Paul's other writings, which are a product of the social and religious conventions of his time, these enable us to look at our own lives and the lives of those around us to discern what gifts, what vocations the Holy Spirit has given for the good of all. We can likewise know the joys and sorrows of the other members of the Body and share in them for the strengthening of the whole Body of Christ.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Ezra read from the book of the law of God to the assembled people. They understood and accepted the law (Nehemiah 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10).
Psalm — Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life (Psalm 19).
Second Reading — As the body with its many parts is still one body, so it is with Christ (1 Corinthians 12:12-30 [12-14, 27]).
Gospel — While attending worship in the Nazarean synagogue, Jesus reads from the prophet Isaiah and declares himself to be the fulfillment of the prophecy (Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21).

THANK YOU

The Angel Tree committee would like to express our appreciation for the generosity of St. Michael's parishioners during Advent 2015. Your commitment was incredibly helpful in meeting our goal of providing gifts for 367 angels, which made Christmas brighter for those in our community who are less fortunate. Thank you for your kindness!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

As Roman Catholics, our marriage practices have their pedigree in ancient Rome. One of the major players in shaping our practices was the warfare involved in building an empire. Soldiers vanished and sometimes never returned. Women began to manage their lives and to make decisions. The old family values were replaced by patriotic ones, and religion was more attuned to the gore and glory of battle, a religion of the state, not of the family. Weddings were still family celebrations, but had a public face. The bride wore a white toga and a red veil and walked to her new home. There, she and her husband joined their right hands and gave consent to each other, not relying on her father to give consent for her. Religion was optional: a pagan priest might be invited or not, and even without the ceremony, society agreed by common law that a year of living together equaled marriage consent. By the same token, marriage by consent also meant divorce was on the same legal footing, and did not require the courts or civil declarations. This is the world-view the first Christians inherited, and it was up to them to determine what was good and to hold marriage up to the light of the gospel.

2016 Bishop's Annual Stewardship Appeal

A TIME FOR REFLECTION

This week, all registered parishioners will receive an invitation by mail to make a pledge or gift to the Appeal. Our Appeal provides critical funding to our seminarians, Catholic Charities, five designated Catholic schools, and will ensure newer means of evangelization. As you review the vocations and ministries the Appeal supports, please reflect on your gifts. Your gifts to our parish, to the Diocese, and to the work of the Church throughout the world are a disciple's response. If you received your pledge form in the mail, please complete and mail back to us, or bring to Mass next week. For those who did not receive a mailing, we will conduct our in-pew pledge process at all Masses next weekend. Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generosity.

They will respond to immediate emergency needs for such necessities as water, food, shelter, and medical care, as well as to the long term need to rebuild and recover after widespread destruction.
